RE: Speaking Invitation
 The National Judicial College 25th Anniversary
 Las Vegas, Nevada
 29 January 1988

Dean of The National Judicial College, William B. Lawless, on behalf of the Board of Directors has invited you to be the principal speaker at either their 25th Anniversary dinner on 29 January in Las Vegas or 30 April in Chicago. (During the year the College plans to celebrate their anniversary in various circuits.) You are asked to give 10 minutes of remarks on a topic of your choice related to the judiciary. In Las Vegas you would share the podium with Dean Lawless. President elect of the ABA, Bob Raven, would also be at the head table. Approximately 400 members of the judiciary, legal profession, and leaders of the community and their spouses would make up the audience. The format for the Chicago dinner to be held at Northwestern University would be similar.

The National Judicial College was founded by the late Honorable Tom Clark to educate the Nation's state trial and administrative judges. Approximately 17,000 judges have graduated from this program.

Since you have accepted speaking invitations with the St. Louis Bar Association in April and the District of Columbia's judicial conference in May, I think you should decline this invitation. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Dean Lawless:

Many thanks for your invitation to be the principal speaker at The National Judicial College's 25th anniversary dinner at either the Las Vegas celebration on January 29th or the Chicago celebration on April 30th. Unfortunately, my schedule is heavily committed and I must decline the honor. Since I would enjoy meeting with the group, I am disappointed.

Congratulations on the success of the College and your 25th anniversary. Please give my warmest regards to your attendees.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Director Webster:

Throughout 1988, The National Judicial College, founded by the late Honorable Tom Clark, will celebrate its 25th anniversary. A major event of the anniversary celebration will be a dinner in Las Vegas, January 29, 1988.

On behalf of the Directors, faculty and staff, it is my honor cordially to invite you to be the principal speaker at the January 29 dinner.

Members of the judiciary, the legal profession, and leaders of the community and their respective spouses will be invited to attend.

Please note, too, that during the year we will celebrate our anniversary in various other circuits, following the attached schedule. (not attached)

Your early reply will be greatly appreciated, and we hope that it will be favorable. I am leaving for the East for the holidays, but my assistant, Ms. Jacquie Belmont, will be happy to answer any questions you might have.

Respectfully,

William B. Lawless
Dean
